Introduction

"There are stars whose radiance is visible on earth though they have long been extinct. There are people whose brilliance continues to light the world though they are no longer among the living. These lights are particularly bright when the night is dark." -- Hannah Senesh

This report has been written to introduce you to the concepts of astrology and how to get started with a child's natal chart. Astrology is a complex and meaningful science which takes years to study and apply successfully; however, we would like to whet your appetite with this report, and encourage you to deepen your understanding through other means.

Astrology is a study of the connection between planets and life on Earth. It is based on a concept that energy patterns form between other planets and Earth and that these energies affect our lives as individuals and communities.

An astrological chart, also known as a horoscope, natal chart, or birth chart, records the relationship between the planets and the signs of the Zodiac. Charts can be calculated for the birth of a person, a community, an event or anything that seems momentous. The horoscope is as individual and unique as a fingerprint.

The aim of this report is to act as a guide for parents and mentors of children. All parents want the best for their children. We want our children to live happy and fulfilled lives. All mentors and teachers would like to see children reach their full potential. This can be achieved by recognising and accepting each child's individual gifts and weaknesses. In accepting these traits, we can help our children overcome obstacles and provide them with as many opportunities as possible to develop their talents.

The journey from babyhood to adulthood is full of joys and challenges. This report is intended to help parents and mentors to support and encourage their children through the difficult times and to provide them with as much love and joy as possible. Then childhood can become a true foundation for a rewarding and joyful adult life. Both children and their parents can be satisfied with a strong and healthy emotional bond, happy memories and many possibilities for future success.

When using these interpretations, please bear in mind that, inevitably, every chart will contain some contradictory influences and, as a result, certain interpretations of different items in the same chart may seem difficult to reconcile. However, this may still be an accurate reflection of a child's chart, as it is likely that any child will experience conflicting desires, events and circumstances in their life. Usually it is the responsibility of an astrologer to synthesise these apparent contradictions in order to present a cohesive and meaningful interpretation of the dilemmas of the chart. Any advice given is meant to be an aid and the author and publisher accept no liability for any adverse effects of this report.

Family and Friends

"Being deeply loved by someone gives you strength while loving someone deeply gives you courage."

-- Lao Tso

The Moon

The Moon tells you about your children's emotional nature and basic needs. It is also the key to how they experience intimacy in relationships. The Moon tells you about your children's relationship with their mother, how they experience their mother's nurturing. As a result it can also give you insights on how to best nurture your children as babies and maturing young adults. When a child feels safe and has their basic needs met, they are better able to achieve their goals later in life.

The Moon is in Pisces

Believe it or not young Prince Christian was extremely happy in his mother's womb. The birth process came as a rude shock, thrusting Prince Christian out of his comfortable, warm and watery environment. Therefore baby Prince Christian needs lots of cuddles and tender loving care. Soft-coloured furnishings and a quiet environment, close to mother, are ideal. Parents may like to invest in a baby sling so that Prince Christian can be kept close.

Prince Christian is a highly sensitive baby and needs longer than other babies to adjust to their new world. This sensitivity may also extend to foods, so parents need to be wary when introducing solid foods. Baby Prince Christian may want to breast feed longer than other children. Prince Christian is also a highly emotional child, who benefits from a harmonious home environment and kind and loving friends. He may enjoy quiet time with mother reading fantasy or light-hearted books. Prince Christian is soothed by trips to the swimming pool, beach, nature parks or theatre. This helps feed Prince Christian's active imagination. Parents may need to help Prince Christian overcome imaginary fears and may be introduced to an imaginary friend. Pets can provide a source of comfort for young Prince Christian; however, these pets need to be calm and gentle rather than boisterous. An aquarium may have a soothing effect.

There may be some tears when it comes to leaving parents for school. It is important that parents do all that they can to ensure a smooth and gentle transition into the school environment. If possible the school selected also needs to have less emphasis on discipline and more of an emphasis on creativity. As Prince Christian grows older creative pursuits provide a much-needed outlet for his strong feelings and imagination.

The Moon is in the 8th House

Prince Christian is an emotional baby and child, highly sensitive to other people's moods. In particular his mother's feelings have a profound effect on Prince Christian's own disposition. Prince Christian forms an intense, almost psychic, bond with his mother or a strong mother figure. He may even have inherited his mother's or maternal grandmother's traits to the extent that people comment on the uncanny similarities. This is a child who is also sensitive to changes of environment, undercurrents in other people's relationships, changes of seasons and to death. The death of a family member, or a pet, can have a profound effect on young Prince Christian. A strong show of compassion and support by caring adults can help teach Prince Christian that death is simply a part of the cycle of life. As a result Prince Christian grows to be a wise and caring person. It may not be possible to protect Prince Christian from all of life's upsets, because he has a habit of attracting dramas on a regular basis. However, it is possible to teach him how to go with the flow, accepting change and trusting in his own ability to cope with all things in time. A stint in the dramatic arts may prove beneficial, helping Prince Christian to express any pent-up emotions. He may also benefit from reading stories about people and their relationships, as well as mystery and detective books.

Venus

The planet Venus describes your children's personal relationships with family and friends. Like a Moon, Venus is important in describing how your child prefers to interact. This planet also gives vital information about your child's receptivity to love. This is important because a child feels loved in different ways. Some children feel cherished when loved ones are paying them lots of attention, whereas others feel most loved when given the freedom to go their separate ways. Therefore gaining an understanding of the planet Venus in your child's chart can give you insights into how to encourage rewarding relationships with family and friends.

Venus is in Sagittarius

Prince Christian is a spontaneous and loving child, who enjoys having fun with family and friends. He benefits from sharing enjoyable adventures, particularly outings such as picnics and visits to the zoo. Nature and its many hidden treasures hold a special fascination for young Prince Christian. When the sun is shining he likes nothing better than to explore the outdoors with a special friend. Prince Christian is restless when bored, but can be easily distracted with a game or book. In fact a trip to the local library or bookshop proves to be an adventure with young Prince Christian in tow. Prince Christian is eager to learn about life, and perhaps even the meaning of life. He is full of contradictions when it comes to relating to his loved ones. On the one hand Prince Christian needs intimacy, affection and warmth. On the other hand Prince Christian also needs plenty of freedom to explore the world. Company is important, but so is being independent.

Prince Christian has many friends and relatives who enjoy his enthusiasm and exuberance; however, he also needs to feel a special bond with one or two of his nearest and dearest. Relatives and friends need to relate honestly to young Prince Christian. From a very young age, he responds better to a direct approach even if it means having to cope with unpleasant matters. Very little dampens Prince Christian's high spirits, as long as he knows where he stands and is allowed to live life to the full. This child needs to be given the freedom to learn from his own mistakes. Parents need only ensure that explorations are within safe bounds. Prince Christian may benefit from joining groups and clubs such as gymnastics, orienteering, horse riding and archery. A local church or young people's group may also appeal. Indoor activities could include reading, collecting stamps from around the world and writing to pen pals.

Venus is in the 4th House

Prince Christian is a little homebody. He doesn't like to stray far from his home, or perhaps even from his own room. Prince Christian may be unusual in that he enjoys spending time tidying his room, placing all of his favourite things in special corners and making sure that everything is clean and neat. He may have an artistic flair for home decoration, which is apparent at a young age. Prince Christian finds his family members a great source of comfort, particularly any women in the family. For this reason, it is important that Prince Christian's mother, or any other female relatives, treat Prince Christian with much love and tenderness. Prince Christian enjoys socialising with family members, although he may prefer relatives to visit him at home rather than venturing out. Visits of friends and relatives are important to young Prince Christian. He can be quite the little host.

At the same time Prince Christian does need to be encouraged to take part in activities outside of his home. Ancient astrologers believe that this is a powerful placement of the planet Venus meaning that young Prince Christian's early home life can provide a very beneficial foundation for his achievements later in life. For this reason it is important that Prince Christian's parents create a warm, loving and stable home environment.

Talents and Schooling

"Dance like no one is watching. Sing like no one is listening. Love like you've never been hurt and live like it's heaven on Earth." -- Mark Twain

The Sun

The Sun represents your child's identity. It describes your child's basic personality traits and their talents. It also tells you how your children think of themselves; how they need to express themselves; how they need to shine in their lives; how they feel alive. It is the centre of a child's self-expression. The Sun can also tell us about a child's father.

The Sun is in Libra

Young Prince Christian is a charming baby and child. He is attractive and loving and enjoys peaceful and harmonious surroundings. Prince Christian benefits from an aesthetically pleasing home, preferring soft pastel colours and enjoying pleasant music. His parents can enjoy their delightful child, creating a fun and pleasing home with plenty of opportunities for social events. Prince Christian is not just attracted to peaceful physical surroundings, he wants his loved ones to enjoy tranquil relations. Relationships of all kinds are important to young Prince Christian, but his relationship with his father, or a male mentor, is likely to be very important.

Prince Christian spends much of his time making sure that other people are relating in a calm and loving manner. He is happiest when his loved ones are enjoying themselves and each other.

Prince Christian needs to be encouraged to be assertive, to look after his own needs rather than other people's all the time. It is important for Prince Christian to strike the right balance. In fact this is one of Prince Christian's main challenges in life. If Prince Christian is taught how to strike the right balance between caring for other people and self-assertion, then he thrives as an adult.

As a child, Prince Christian also has difficulty coping with conflict. Parents and mentors may notice that their charming child becomes irritable and unco-operative if those around him are experiencing conflict in their lives. Prince Christian feels insecure if his loved ones are angry or involved in arguments. When Prince Christian feels unsettled, he is likely to throw a tantrum or to try to keep the peace. Either way, he quickly settles once he senses that all is well in his little world. Prince Christian is likely to shine in a diplomatic or artistic field in adult life. In fact he may be attracted to any career that utilises his talents of creating harmony and beauty.

The Sun is in the 3rd House

Prince Christian loves stimulation. As a baby he enjoys colourful surroundings and interacting with siblings or other children. Baby Prince Christian delights in lots of eye contact and "conversations" with other people. He is likely to learn to walk and talk earlier than other children, and enjoys reading from a young age. Prince Christian loves books, magazines, films, videos and computers, anything that helps stimulate his vivid imagination. He may also enjoy writing, drawing, and painting.

Early childhood education is important. Parents and mentors need to carefully choose the right school to ensure that Prince Christian is encouraged to express himself. In this way he can grow and learn and properly develop his talent for exchanging ideas and information. Prince Christian blossoms with the right education. Neighbours may also play a prominent role in young Prince Christian's development, encouraging him to further develop his talent for learning and sharing information. Prince Christian loves the world of ideas and is likely to ask "why?" many times. On the whole Prince Christian enjoys interacting with his siblings. If he is an only child, then other children in the neighbourhood are likely to take the place of siblings.

Although talkative Prince Christian may prefer the company of one or two people rather than crowds. This depends somewhat on the sign of his Sun. A child with the Sun in the sign of Gemini, Libra, Aquarius, Leo or Sagittarius is more likely to be gregarious; whereas a child with the Sun in Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces, Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn or Aries is more likely to enjoy interacting on a one-to-one basis. Either way Prince Christian enjoys company.

Mercury

The planet Mercury describes your children's intellectual abilities. The sign and placement of Mercury can describe whether or not your child finds it easy to concentrate at school. Your child may be a daydreamer or have great concentration. Your child may be shy or interact easily with other people. Either way it is possible to boost your child's self-esteem by choosing study methods and schooling that suits their needs rather than forcing them to fit into an alien environment. Gaining an understanding of the planet Mercury can help in these matters.

Mercury is in Scorpio

Prince Christian is a resourceful child with an investigative mind. He is a deep thinker, constantly questioning the workings of objects and the hidden meaning of human relationships. Little Prince Christian really prompts those around him to search their knowledge for suitable answers to his penetrating queries. In fact young Prince Christian's questions can cause embarrassment because no topic is taboo. Sex, death and metaphysical matters all hold a certain fascination. Family skeletons tend to come out of the closet when young Prince Christian is around. Alternatively, Prince Christian likes to have secrets of his own. Parents and mentors need to be patient when Prince Christian is quiet and withdrawn. He prefers to spend time on his own when upset, mulling over a problem in his mind. He is likely to respond adversely if pressured to explain what is concerning him. Given time, Prince Christian's frowns eventually become smiles.

The ease of Prince Christian's entry into formal schooling largely depends on other aspects of his birth chart. However, he is likely to enjoy schooling more if he can get some individual attention or is given the freedom to work alone on his tasks. Prince Christian really enjoys taking his time on a project. Prince Christian's scholarly skills are likely to improve as he matures. His penetrating mind and research skills mean that he really enjoys books, libraries, computer resources and laboratories.

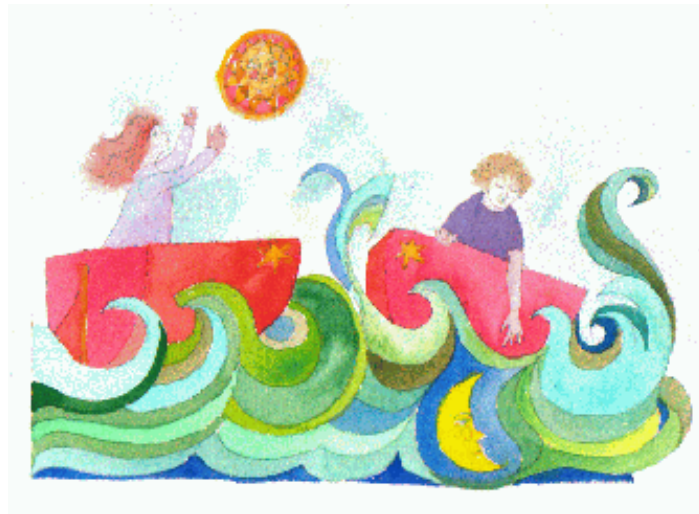

Mercury is in the 4th House

Young Prince Christian learns a great deal from his relationships with family members. Of course, this is true for many children, but Prince Christian is like a little radar when it comes to observing the interactions and actions of loved ones in his own home. All of the information goes into his young mind to be processed and used later. For this reason it is important that family members show consideration for Prince Christian in the family home, taking time out of busy schedules to answer any of his questions or to help him with a daily task. Fortunately Prince Christian quite enjoys having a busy home life with plenty of friends and relatives visiting. This is particularly true if he prefers socialising at home rather than at other people's homes or in public venues.

Prince Christian may hesitate to travel far from his home preferring to have all of his favourite things and activities in his own room. He does not mind having two homes such as a city home and a beach house, but is not a great traveller to foreign places. This depends on other features in his birth chart. Prince Christian benefits from home study, but this is not always possible. Therefore parents need to give preference to any school which has a family environment or is in neighbourhood. This gives Prince Christian the support that he needs with plenty of opportunities for travelling to school with friends and having after-school visits. Prince Christian also enjoys having his parents involved in school activities.

Goals

"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." -- Eleanor Roosevelt

The Ascendant

The Ascendant, or Rising Sign as it's sometimes called, is considered to be an important component of an astrology chart. Ancient astrologers believed that the Ascendant depicted a person's primary motivation. Some believed that it was one of the links to discovering what makes a person happy. It could be said that when we're accomplishing our primary motivation then we're happy. By gaining knowledge of a child's Ascendant and discovering this child's primary motivation in life, parents and mentors can then help them achieve their goals. Caring adults can encourage the child with love and support. In turn your child experiences a sense of happiness and fulfilment.

The Ascendant is in Leo

Prince Christian is likely to actively seek his purpose in life, taking the initiative rather than waiting until circumstances are comfortable. Prince Christian loves to be the centre of attention and strives to make an impression on the world from a young age. His primary motivation is for action. Leo is a Fixed sign denoting fixity of purpose, resolution, self-reliance and independence. However, it is also a Fire sign depicting a need for action and enterprise.

Prince Christian is sincere, generous and ambitious, assured of his own purpose. Life is full and eventful once young Prince Christian has arrived. Parents will enjoy showing off young baby Prince Christian, as much as he enjoys being on display. As a baby and young child Prince Christian has a sunny nature and demands a lot of attention. Prince Christian's path to achieving his goals may be strewn with a few obstacles intended on teaching patience and humility. However, Prince Christian will soon learn to use his strength of character and strong willpower in a positive and powerful manner. Prince Christian is a sunny-natured child who revels in the attention and praise of loved ones.

Mars

Ambition and drive, like many traits, can be powerful positive forces in your children's lives, helping them achieve their dreams. Too much ambition can hinder your child's ability to collaborate. On the other hand, without motivation your child may not be able to establish a healthy sense of self and successfully leave home and family. Studying Mars, the planet of drive and energy, assists parents and mentors. Mars describes vitality in your child's birth chart. If our children are free to pursue their own dreams and ambitions, their joie de vivre is a wonderful thing to see. By understanding the placement of Mars in your child's chart, you can help support their goals. You gain insight into whether or not your child lacks motivation in certain areas and why. You can also see if your child has an excess of passion. As a result you can either patiently try to motivate your child, or you can provide plenty of stimulation and direction.

Mars is in Taurus

Prince Christian is a quiet achiever. Mars is not strong in the sign of Taurus and therefore young Prince Christian starts life a little slowly with possibly some setback in infancy. He learns to crawl and walk after his playmates. He finds leaving the safety and comfort of home a bit threatening. Therefore kindergarten, pre-school and school can be a bit daunting. Parents need not be concerned.

As Prince Christian matures he develops the determination of a young bull and learns how to achieve his goals. He just needs a little encouragement along the way to leave his comforts. If, as a young child, Prince Christian appears to be lacking in motivation, later parents and mentors discover that he is simply waiting for the right activity or direction before wasting precious time and energy. He tackles any task slowly and surely. He has plenty of drive for achieving his own objectives, but stubbornly refuses to tackle activities that lack interest. He also prefers to move at his own pace and is not going to be hurried along by anyone else.

Prince Christian is loyal and steadfast and wise. He enjoys nature and may benefit from having his own little garden plot. He also enjoys anything that appeals to the senses. Beauty, music, the arts, fashion, design and other such aesthetic areas all hold a special allure. He may also have a special talent in one of these areas, which needs encouragement. Otherwise Prince Christian's need for security may hinder the development of this talent.

Mars is in the 10th House

Prince Christian makes an impact on his family as soon as he is born and continues to do so throughout his childhood development. Prince Christian is unlikely to enjoy the family home environment, preferring to explore further afield. Of course this depends on other aspects of Prince Christian's birth chart. However, it is likely that he enjoys the stimulation of outings to public places, rather than remaining home with loved ones. Prince Christian is eager to go to school, working hard to achieve his desired results. He needs to be free to pursue his own course in his school and social life wherever possible, rather than have too much parental interference. Young Prince Christian has definite life goals and knows how to pursue them, even if this means being involved in a little conflict along the way. Conflict is not a problem for Prince Christian, although it may be for those around him. Independence is his middle name and woe betide anyone who stands in his way. Parents and mentors need to give young Prince Christian plenty of freedom while teaching him the value of gaining co-operation from others in order to achieve his goals. Once this lesson is learnt then young Prince Christian is likely to continue making an impact on those around him for a very long time.

Childhood Journey

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm." -- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Wouldn't it be ideal if we could isolate one trait in our personalities, capture it in a glass for observation and dissection? Of course this is not possible. Neither is it possible for us to isolate one part of a birth chart. The different aspects of our children's birth charts intermingle in a complex manner to make the little person that we know and love. However, it is possible for us to influence the development of our children, to support them in their journey. The aim of this section is to give vital clues for parents and mentors on how to guide, but not coerce, the development of your child.

Pluto is Square The Moon

Prince Christian is a sensitive and reflective child with a strong emotional nature. As a baby Prince Christian is likely to form a strong bond with his mother or another important female caregiver. This bond plays a crucial role in his upbringing. The advantages of this are that Prince Christian enjoys an intensely rewarding relationship with an important woman, which helps him blossom as a young adult. He learns how to express his feelings in a positive manner within a safe and rewarding relationship. However, it is also possible that Prince Christian can demand a little too much from the woman in his young life, and therefore feel disappointed when someone important fails to live up to his expectations. As a youngster this is the likely time when Prince Christian's intense feelings erupt in the form of tantrums. Therefore it is important that Prince Christian is allowed to express his feelings in a safe manner, but that any manipulative behaviour is not rewarded.

Hobbies and pastimes that either demand concentrated effort or that encourage emotional self-expression are important. These could include the dramatic arts, energetic sports, or building models. A pet could also be an ideal way for Prince Christian to learn about the emotional side of relationships.

Jupiter is Conjunct The Sun

Prince Christian is a sunny and optimistic child with an infectious smile and joie de vivre. Baby Prince Christian is welcomed into a warm and loving family. Prince Christian's father, or grandfather, is particularly excited by his birth and a warm and loving bond results. Prince Christian responds well to his father's praise, or to the positive comments of any male parental figure. He may share a close bond with his grandfather. These positive childhood relationships with adult males augur well for Prince Christian's relationships with men throughout his life. A generous child, Prince Christian enjoys new experiences and adventures. He has no trouble playing with other children, sharing his toys. In fact his infectious personality attracts many playmates. Prince Christian is kind and helpful and, depending on other factors in his birth chart, is likely to be a contented and well-loved child.

Neptune is Trine The Sun

Prince Christian is a creative child, who longs for a close and caring relationship with his father or a man who can act as a father figure. Prince Christian is also a sensitive child who needs gentle support by an important man in his life. It is also possible that he has an artistic talent or an interest in spirituality that ideally needs to be nurtured by a father figure.

This is a child who needs to be encouraged by his father to trust his own instincts. Harsh discipline could cause such a gentle natured child to become cowardly and frightened. Rather he needs his father to help nurture his innate talents and interests. One of the problems with this influence is that Prince Christian's father seems destined to play a less prominent role in his life than perhaps Prince Christian's mother. Perhaps Prince Christian's father is unable to provide this close, supportive emotional bond through circumstances beyond his control such as his profession demanding frequent absences from home. In such cases Prince Christian may enjoy having his favourite photos of his father placed in the bedroom or around the home. When Prince Christian's father is around he can create special memories by spending exclusive time with Prince Christian in a secluded or natural environment.

Whatever the circumstances it is important that some gentle means can be found to provide young Prince Christian with a positive male influence. Otherwise he is likely to develop attention-getting traits such as bed-wetting, minor illnesses and sulking. Perhaps a male member of the extended family, a teacher at school or a mentoring program could be of help. This way Prince Christian's creative and compassionate nature can be encouraged. Fantasy stories, musical instruments and recordings, paints and crayons, time spent in nature and dance can all play a positive part in helping young Prince Christian shine in the world. Other aspects of Prince Christian's birth chart could affect this planetary influence. For further information about the exact nature of this astrological signature it may help to consult a qualified astrologer on a one-to-one basis.

Pluto is Sextile The Sun

Prince Christian is a powerful child, challenging himself and those who love him to stand up and take notice of life's abundance. He is curious and keen to explore new territory. If extroverted then young Prince Christian is likely to end up in trouble as a result of his curiosity and resulting adventures into the outside world. He is a real character, a regular Tom Sawyer or Pippi Longstocking. However, a more introverted child may simply enjoy spending time on his own studying the inner workings of toys, nature and/or household equipment.

From the moment of birth Prince Christian's father plays a pivotal role in his life. His childhood relationship with father, or a strong father figure, determines the extent to which he feels able to carve his own niche later in life. Prince Christian is likely to adore his father as a young child. As the patriarch of the family he earns respect of those surrounding him. A growing child keenly notices this. However, there may be a time when this adoration is transformed by a sense of betrayal. This is not necessarily within father's control. No-one can live up to God-like expectations. However, he can make sure that Prince Christian feels supported as much as possible.

Both Prince Christian and his father have strong personalities and therefore they clash, each determined to express their own views or have their own way. It is important that Prince Christian's father shows self-restraint, otherwise these clashes could become violent. He needs to ensure that young Prince Christian is kept safe, away from emotional, verbal and physical abuse. In other words Prince Christian's father needs to provide a safe environment in which he and Prince Christian can both assert their own wills and gain greater understanding of themselves and each other. If this is not achieved then young Prince Christian loses a sense of his own identity and cowers in the face of adversity. He eventually rebels, probably in his teenage years. However, if Prince Christian's father can allow him the freedom to develop his own powerful personality then young Prince Christian is likely to develop great personal power, the ability to lead others and to achieve his own goals.

The theme of death can also play an important role under this influence. Young Prince Christian is both more sensitive to the grief process and also more able to grow in strength through this process, be it the death of a family member or the death of a pet.

Mars is Quincunx The Sun

Now here is an active youngster! Prince Christian loves to be stimulated and is keen to have a go at most things. In fact he is likely to experience all sorts of adventures at a young age. Although Prince Christian won't thank anyone who stops him exploring, he does need some guidance, particularly from his father.

Young Prince Christian needs to learn how to safely take part in activities that are challenging. Otherwise he will be the sort of child who is making regular visits to the doctor for bumps on the head and other such accidents. Prince Christian just loves to take risks. His abundant energy can be channelled into safe activities such as football, baseball, basketball, cycling, fencing, or any sport that requires energetic application. Prince Christian's father plays an important part in his life, although at times there may be arguments and clashes of will. Nevertheless Prince Christian enjoys a firm and kind male influence. The lesson for the important man in young Prince Christian's life is patience and assertion, definitely not aggression! Prince Christian has quite a temper when roused, and so it is vital that parents make every effort to distract his attention, provide plenty of demanding activities, and remain calm. If all else fails, time out in a safe environment could give everyone some much-needed peace.

Uranus is Sesquisquare The Sun

From the moment Prince Christian is born, family life takes a different direction. In fact even his birth may have taken his parents by surprise and challenged family members to make changes. Prince Christian is one of a kind. He is a restless baby, fed up with inactivity and eager to be on the move. It is true that Prince Christian is easily bored. He quickly outgrows activities, friends and even family members. He may not enjoy cuddles and the safety of a warm home, but rather takes pleasure in exploring new things. Prince Christian enjoys doing things on his own, as well as playing with others. However, he is more likely to be a leader than a follower. He is also likely to be impulsive and determined to have his own way. Young Prince Christian can be quite stubborn. This can cause friction with any adult in a position of responsibility, particularly men.

Prince Christian's father, or a father figure, plays an important role in his life. In some cases his father may have an unusual occupation or hobby that takes him away from his family responsibilities. Or perhaps Prince Christian's father is absent at a crucial stage of his development. As a result Prince Christian may become rebellious, even uncontrollable for a period. In other cases, it may simply be that his father is an independent person capable of encouraging Prince Christian's independent spirit in a positive manner. It is important that Prince Christian's father provide safe limits for little Prince Christian's explorations so that he can discover new activities without taking unnecessary risks. Prince Christian's father, or a father figure, needs to have an abundance of patience as he tests the limits.

Saturn is Square Mercury

Now here's a child who needs a lot of approval and support, particularly from his father or an important male mentor. The more love and kindness that Prince Christian receives, the more he is able to express himself in his daily life with confidence. The reason for this is that the combination of the planets Saturn and Mercury can be a difficult one, presenting some pitfalls in early childhood development. In other words young Prince Christian may face difficulties in his ability to learn and communicate. This, in turn, affects his self-confidence.

Prince Christian may be shy, preferring the safety of his home rather than venturing out and about. Prince Christian could be slow to talk and read. Perhaps school seems a bit overwhelming to young Prince Christian. He prefers to spend time reading in his own room rather than socialising with his friends. Prince Christian is sensitive to criticism, particularly any harsh words from his father or a prominent male member of the family. On the other hand Prince Christian slowly blossoms when praised by his father. He also responds well to a male mentor's patient words of wisdom. With calm handling Prince Christian gradually gains self-understanding and a wisdom that is beyond his years. Another positive note is that most of Prince Christian's learning difficulties are experienced in his early youth.

As he matures, social and communication skills and study becomes easier. It is almost as if Prince Christian is born with a greater intelligence that needs to be carefully nurtured during childhood in order for it to be fully expressed as he matures.

As Prince Christian grows older, he is likely to excel in a specialised subject of his choice. His selection of topic depends on other aspects of his birth chart. Parents need to make sure that Prince Christian is able to choose his own study topics as much as is possible. Excessive parental control could have a detrimental effect, eroding Prince Christian's budding self-confidence. It is interesting to note that the famous scientist Albert Einstein experienced learning difficulties at school, and yet later rose to prominence in his field. Einstein had a powerful combination (conjunction) of the planets Saturn and Mercury in his birth chart. The strength of this association depends on the nature of the astrological link. Parents may wish to consult an astrologer for further information.

Uranus is Trine Mercury

Prince Christian is a curious child, quickly showing an interest in all things in his immediate environment. Prince Christian is quick to learn new activities, grasping quite complex concepts sooner than his peers. Prince Christian requires plenty of stimulation. Otherwise he is easily bored and restless.

Prince Christian responds well to adult company and is particularly in tune with male family members. He enjoys interacting with his father, particularly if his father gives him the freedom to express his own thoughts. Parents and mentors need to cater for Prince Christian's intelligence by providing books, computers, and other education material. Prince Christian is likely to rebel against an authoritarian approach, preferring his independence. "Let me do it," may be a common childhood refrain. Prince Christian is likely to excel at school, particularly if teachers encourage his individual strengths rather than force him to conform. He may show an interest in an unusual topic, or share a common interest with his father.

Neptune is Square Mercury

The combination of the planets Neptune and Mercury is a challenging one. The extent of the challenge depends on the exact nature of the association and other influences in Prince Christian's birth chart. However, the planet Mercury represents communication, which is overshadowed somewhat by the planet Neptune. Therefore Prince Christian finds it difficult to express himself in conventional ways. Parents and mentors help Prince Christian find more unorthodox ways in which to express himself such as through the creative arts. Art, poetry, theatre, dance and music can prove highly beneficial forms of expression. Prince Christian is a daydreamer, often forgetful around the home. This can be frustrating for family members, who need to exercise plenty of patience.

Prince Christian is often apprehensive, fearing criticism for his absent-minded ways. He needs parents, and family members, to acknowledge his many gifts, even if they are not conventional ones. Prince Christian does not respond well to force.

Prince Christian is intuitive, kind and loving. He is quick to care for those in need. Prince Christian is imaginative and enjoys stories such as fairy tales, myths and legends. He may also have a talent for making up his own stories. Parents and mentors need to ensure that young Prince Christian understands the difference between fantasy and reality. Prince Christian may prefer to live in a fantasy world rather than face the demands of daily responsibilities. He is highly impressionable.

Positive influences are important in order for Prince Christian to develop his self-esteem. Parents and mentors need to take special care in choosing a school for young Prince Christian. He needs a school environment that encourages creativity, rather than purely academic achievement. Friendships also play an important role in helping or hindering Prince Christian's sensitive nature. Therefore, it is important for parents to encourage friendships that have only a positive influence. With the right encouragement Prince Christian grows in self-confidence and finds the means to express his unique gifts.

Saturn is Trine Venus

Young Prince Christian has a serious side to his nature that ensures that he is a responsible child. No matter what other personality traits Prince Christian may show, he has the ability to form long and lasting relationships with family and friends. In fact he may form a close bond with a particular parent, showing loyalty and self-sacrifice beyond his years.

From a young age Prince Christian sees the merits of stable relationships and wants this for himself. In some cases this yearning for security is a result of instability or friction in the family home, but mostly it is a part of Prince Christian's nature. He is caring and responsible. Unlike other children, he seems to understand the adage that "something worthwhile is worth waiting for". Prince Christian is likely to have one or two close friends, rather than an abundance of acquaintances. In fact he may be shy in crowds, preferring the intimacy of smaller gatherings.

Parents and mentors need to ensure that Prince Christian does not sacrifice his own happiness in order to please loved ones. With firm and loving parental guidance young Prince Christian can achieve the right balance between thoughtfulness for others and self-assurance. Prince Christian is particularly sensitive to any antagonism by his mother. Therefore it is important that Prince Christian is able to experience warmth and understanding from his mother, or an important female member of his family.

Uranus is Square Venus

Prince Christian needs plenty of liberty to express his independence. Naturally inquisitive, he does not like to be tied down, but prefers to be free to explore his own interests. As such Prince Christian's parents need to be very flexible with routines and social engagements.

Prince Christian is easily bored and liable to get into trouble until he learns some self-control. He is a unique little individual with many and varied interests and friends. Prince Christian also has a tendency to act first and think later. This results in some exciting, if somewhat risky, adventures and activities. These may involve electricity, chemistry, fireworks or some sort of experiment with a difference. He can enjoy adventures on his own but usually he likes to involve his friends in his escapades. Parents need to direct Prince Christian's excess energy into lively, but safe, activities. Benefits can be gained from enrolling young Prince Christian in children's sports or social clubs.

One of the major challenges facing young Prince Christian is to learn to consider the needs of family and friends. Young Prince Christian tends to ride roughshod over loved ones in his efforts to satisfy his own desires. In fact, Prince Christian is wilful and rebellious. Parents need to walk a fine line between supporting Prince Christian's need for independence and teaching him to co-operate with others. As Prince Christian grows older, he needs to be free to choose his friends and some of them might be quite unusual. Any interference from his parents is likely to be met with mutiny. Parents would be well advised to give Prince Christian his freedom, only taking a firm line if his friendships are particularly unsavoury. He enjoys many different friends during the course of his childhood. It takes some time for him to learn the value of commitment. This depends, of course, on other aspects of his birth chart. In rare cases this combination of the planets Venus and Uranus can indicate a child who has a very unusual hobby or pastime that replaces his need for playmates.

Pluto is Quincunx Mars

Woe betide anyone who stands in the way of young Prince Christian. He may appear docile, but underneath he has an iron will. Those closest to Prince Christian recognise that he knows what he desires and is unlikely to let anyone or anything stand in his way. This trait can be seen at a very early age. Prince Christian doesn't like to be thwarted and has quite a temper. It is not always apparent and can erupt out of the blue. This presents quite a challenge for Prince Christian's parents, who need to teach him that tantrums and other manipulative forms of behaviour are not the way to achieve his goals. Prince Christian has to learn that getting his own way is not the most important thing in life. Co-operation and consideration are also valuable. Of course, the extent of Prince Christian's forceful manner does depend on other aspects of his birth chart. However, childhood development is likely to be strewn with some dramatic lessons. It is also vital that Prince Christian's parents, in particular his father, avoid physical punishment. Prince Christian responds adversely to force, and also needs to learn how to manage conflict as well as possible.

Conclusion

*"When I was a boy of 14, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be 21, I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years." -- Mark Twain
"Bringing Up Father"*

This report has been written from a child's point of view with the aim of helping parents and mentors better understand their youngsters. Of course, each person is ultimately responsible for their own actions, but the support that children get early in life goes a long way to helping them live rich and rewarding adult lives. Children need to be given the freedom to be their true selves rather than being forced to live up to parental expectations or to fulfill parents' own personal journeys. They need their parents to live their own lives to the full, joyously and responsibly. Above all children need love and support. What great gifts and what a challenging role for parents! It is the author's hope that this report may help in the process of childhood development, supporting both child and parent. My own father often quoted the above saying by Mark Twain. So I thought that I would share it in this report. My mother gave me many of the aforementioned gifts. I hope that these have shone through in the writing of this report.
