Solar Writer - Medicus

Solar Writer—Medicus is a fresh and original report on classical medical astrology written by J Lee Lehman

This creative report writer program works exclusively from an event chart enabling an astrologer to ask a horary question or erect a chart for the onset of an illness and then print an interpretations report.

Solar Writer - Medicus is designed to give the modern astrologer the ancient medical teachings with minimal embellishment in an exclusive 20-page report.

This unique tool provides the astrologer with the teachings of multiple medical astrologers, including classical medical astrologers Nicholas Culpeper and Richard Saunders, in a fashion accessible to modern astrological technique. This distinctive report writer uses a database of more than 1,400 statements and aphorisms (with citations) to extract those applicable to a single horary or event chart. The report generates works from the event or horary chart exclusively; it does not compare this chart to the nativity.
