

SOLAR FIRE DYNAMIC INTERPRETATIONS REPORT

PROGRESSIONS: Progression Interpretations

Astrologers use the term "Progressions" to describe a particular technique of moving planets forward in time. This technique is aptly named because it describes how a person progresses through their life. Progressions describe the different phases in our lives as well as our inner urges and how they affect our lives rather than dramatic outer events. However, our urges can significantly affect the way in which we react to circumstances and therefore our decisions. It is important that we go with the flow rather than fight against the tides of our lives. Therefore Progressions are likely to show us signposts in life's journey and consequently help us gain wisdom and understanding. Some astrologers believe that Progressions are signs from our soul or higher self; others place less emphasis. We suggest that you read on and see for yourself.

PROGRESSED MOON ENTERING 6TH HOUSE (6th House)

4 Aug 2005

It is time to get organized, discard old bad habits and incorporate new ones in your daily life. Your schedule, diet, exercise regime or lack thereof all need to be revised. If you are usually disorganized then now is the ideal time to bring order to chaos. Diaries, planners, calendars, filing systems and pocket organizers can all be useful during this phase. Your co-workers can play a vital role in helping you establish a new regime. You may also benefit from a big spring clean of your office, home, car or any other area of your life that needs attention. If you have been eating unhealthy food or overeating then now is a good moment to change your diet. You could consult a dietician or rely on your own resources. You also need to focus on your daily exercise. Are you getting enough exercise or are you overdoing things? Perhaps you could start a new and enjoyable activity or sports or maybe meditation or yoga would be beneficial? The emphasis is on making sure that your daily routine supports your goals in life. For this reason you may also start reconsidering your current work schedule with a view to changing jobs. You are not necessarily interested in a new career direction, but you may become keen to change jobs or employers. If you work in your own business then you may change your venue to something more suitable to your lifestyle. For instance you may move your office closer to your home, or you may move your business to a more beneficial location. No matter what the focus of your life is during this phase, you need to make sure that you are moving forward in a healthy and balanced lifestyle, one that benefits your life goals. The sign of your progressed Moon will also show you the area of your life most likely to be affected by this new schedule!

PROGRESSED MOON OPPOSITION RADIX SUN (6th House to 12th House)

Exact 31 Aug 2005

You are currently faced with a decision which has been lingering for some time. The decision may be difficult, requiring some consideration or you may feel ready to move into a new dimension of your life. Either way you are required to move forward into a new phase in some aspect of your life, a phase that more readily enables you to express your true self. If you have been hiding your light under a bushel, letting fear guide your decisions, then you are now required to face your fears and move out of the rut that you have carved. This could take some courage. On the other hand you may feel ready to make significant changes. Perhaps you are tired of opting for comfort and are ready for some excitement. You may experience some conflict with loved ones if they feel threatened by the changes they see taking place. Those who hold some authority in your life may also prefer you to remain subservient. As long as your actions are honourable you should emerge from this period with a new sense of confidence and purpose.

PROGRESSED MOON OPPOSITION RADIX CHIRON (6th House to 12th)

Conflicting emotions abound during this period. Some events may seem to be very upsetting and yet contrarily also very healing. Dreams, meditation and creative visualisation can be very powerful right now. It is important that you take time to enjoy the simple pleasures in life and to listen to your intuition. If you can take time to reflect and nurture yourself then you are likely to reap large rewards. These rewards are unlikely to be monetary. They are more likely to be of an emotional or spiritual nature. For instance you may feel a soothing awareness that you have been able to let go of past hurts and have rejuvenated your sense of purpose. On the other hand you may develop a deep appreciation of your existing lifestyle and relationships.

PROGRESSED MOON OPPOSITION RADIX VENUS (6th House to 12th House)

Romantic love can be joyous and painful. Right now you are more tuned into the pain, rather than the joy. If you have a lover, fiancé or spouse then they are likely to be hurting you in some way. It is likely that they are not as committed as you would like and this is confusing you. You may simply need to wait until your loved one can settle down. On the other hand you may have to let go and accept that the relationship is going nowhere. If you are single, you could become focused on finding someone to share your life. It is possible that your feelings for someone are strong but are not returned. Whether you are in a relationship or not, there is a danger that you could become quite obsessed with the objects of your affections right now. Displaying your emotions will get you nowhere. It would be better if you were able to change the focus of your attention. You need to nurture yourself and share pleasurable times with your friends and family, knowing that someone better is waiting in the wings. You may also benefit from following a passionate past time, particularly one involving the arts, fashion or beauty. It is not time for recriminations, but rather time to gain a greater understanding of the type of relationship that is most beneficial for your well being.

PROGRESSED MOON ENTERING GEMINI (7th House)
7 Sep 2007

After a period of building up an area of your life you are now eager to explore some new options. Previously you needed to consolidate on business or financial enterprises or establish your professional reputation, or simply put down roots and maintain a routine. Now you could do with changing your schedule. You want stimulation and hence are likely to make some changes in one or more areas of your life. At first you may feel a little unsettled, even insecure. This depends largely on your basic personality. However, you may also be excited by a sense that changes are afoot. Perhaps you have been bored during the past years, needing to consolidate and build on past endeavours rather than undertaking new ones. On the other hand you may have enjoyed the routine and responsibilities. Perhaps finances, household tasks or the care of a family member have needed your attention. Perhaps you have needed to establish a routine for young children, but now they are going to school, leaving you more time to explore some new avenues of expression. On the other hand you may have been concentrating on establishing your reputation in your career and now you are seeking promotion or a new job. Whatever the scenario now you feel the urge to branch out, gathering more information needed for the next stage of your life. Short courses, communications from friends and relatives, new technology and a constantly ringing telephone seem to mark this phase. Community groups and neighbours may take more prominence. Advertising and marketing may also feature. Your social life may step up and you can benefit from your interactions with a wider circle of friends and acquaintances. You have the opportunity to explore new opportunities and may even seek the excitement of travelling or moving to a new neighbourhood.

PROGRESSED MOON OPPOSITION RADIX JUPITER (7th House to 1st House)

Exact 20 Sep 2007

Everything seems a little larger than life right now. You feel as if all of your dreams and wishes are coming true right. In some ways you are correct. Life is full of many rewards right now. However, you need to make choices rather than try to take on every opportunity that comes your way. If you are not careful you may well overindulge and overestimate your own abilities. As a result your life may become imbalanced. You need to make sure that you do not neglect one area of your life as you pursue your own goals. You need to balance your home, family, work and marriage, with your own interests and appetites. The problem is that you are currently going through a somewhat egotistical stage. On the positive side you are eager to achieve your goals and are quite capable of doing so. Gifts, rewards and awards may well come your way. You may also attract warm wishes and gifts from friends, lovers, colleagues and family members. However, if you are not careful you squander your opportunities by taking things or people for granted. As a result you over-commit yourself, neglect loved ones and run out of energy. A time of short-term excess can result in loss of all that is meaningful. If you can slow down and appreciate the gifts and those who give then you are most likely to gain some enduring benefits. However, if you remain self-righteous and continue to indulge your every whim then you could fritter away this period of your life.

This is a period during which you want to delve into meaningful matters. Superficiality holds no appeal. Therefore topics such as sexuality, life, death, metaphysics and physics hold a certain fascination. It is possible that you consider childbirth during this period, or perhaps someone close to you has a child. You may also suffer the loss of a loved one, although it is also possible that you simply recall memories of loved ones who have died earlier in your life. Memories play an important role during this phase, offering you insights into areas of your life that need to be faced, healed and ultimately changed. On a more mundane level you may feel an urge to sort out your financial investments, investigating property and equity options. You are keen to build a nest egg for the future. This is the ideal time to explore new opportunities, as long as you are willing to let go of anything that has been holding you back. The sign of your Progressed Moon reveals the manner in which you approach this phase of transition. If your Progressed Moon is in a Fire or Air sign then you are excited, seeking new inspiration and easily discarding the old habits. You need only be wary of being too rash. If your Progressed Moon is in an Earth or Water sign then you may find it more difficult to move out of your comfortable environment. You need to make modifications slowly, ensuring that your need for security is taken account of.

You may act impulsively; enjoy the capricious nature of your life right now. In fact you can be sure that freedom is an important factor right now. The force of your desire to be free of restrictions may surprise anyone who tries to curb your independence. You may also develop a new interest, something unexpected in metaphysics, science, technology, politics or the environment. It is also possible that some event or person will take you completely by surprise. You can expect the unexpected. The best way to cope with this period of change is to go with the flow. Imagine a roller coaster ride. You cannot control the ups and downs or the speed but you can settle in and enjoy the ride. Have fun and enjoy the freedom that results from this period of changeability.

PROGRESSED MOON ENTERING CANCER (8th House)

26 Sep 2009

Your nesting instincts are strong during this phase. This does not necessarily mean that you want to start a family, although this could be the case. This can be the ideal time for pregnancy and childbirth. However, it can also mean that you want to find a home that is most suitable to your needs. If you are comfortable in your own home then you may simply redecorate or renovate. However, if you feel that you have outgrown your current abode then you are likely to move. Perhaps you look further a field than your local neighbourhood, setting your sights on travelling to a different location, even a different country. You may invest in real estate, perhaps purchasing a second property for recreation or retreat. You may also enjoy seeking your family roots, visiting older relatives, researching your family tree and visiting ancestral places. All of these pastimes may help you better understand your familial background. Pets may also feature during this phase. If you don't already have a loved pet then you may feel the need to seek out a pet. Either way animals can be a great source of comfort. Children, too, can demand your time and care. If you enjoy spending time with loved ones then this can be a rewarding phase, however; if you find the care of others an onerous task then you may struggle with this phase. Perhaps ultimately you decide that you are most comfortable when living on your own. The emphasis is on you finding your own comfortable situation so that you are ready for the next creative phase of your life.
